A Magic of Theatre Presentation

On Time

A One-Act Musical

What is time?

The young students in this dreamlike musical try to answer that question by exploring the present, the past, and the future. They find that what matters isn't time as a specific unit but rather how people feel/about it.

What is time to you? Guess you will have to see for yourself!

The mission of the Oregon Conservatory of Performing Arts is to provide professional instruction and a performance-based resource for young people in the greater Rogue Valley.

We believe that all young people should have an opportunity to participate in all aspects of the theatre arts—that a complete education involves knowledge of the arts and participation in them. We are not about the show; we are about the process—helping kids blossom.

Dear Parents and Students,

What an exciting summer! This year we're presenting five camps, giving Rogue Valley youth the opportunity to study theatre with professionals while preparing to perform for their family, their friends, and the public. This is our fifth year offering our nonprofit Magic of Theatre summer camps for kids six to 17. We have expanded our offerings and brought in remarkable professional instructors, each of whom brings an extensive résumé of experience in teaching and theatre. OCPA is very privileged to have them with us.

We are also happy to announce that we have recently received grants from the Bravo Channel and the Anna May and Cow Creek Foundations to help the children of low-income families attend our camps and classes. We are always looking for funding through grants, donations, and other avenues so we can continue building a complete year-around performing arts school for youth in the Rogue Valley. If you'd like to get involved, please call us!

The Oregon Conservatory continues to grow. Now in our seventh year, we are offering more-distinctive after-school and Saturday classes in the performing arts. This fall we will be offering new classes in directing, scene study, audition techniques, Shakespeare, and more. We'll also reprise our most popular offerings: Kids on Stage, Playtime Acting, Young Singers, and Rock Band 101 and 102. Growin' is a special project this fall—an exceptional opportunity for teens to update an original coming-of-age script with their own words and experiences and then perform the musical on local stages.

Thank you for your ongoing support.

Jeff M. Tabler
Executive Director

Now in its fifth season, the Magic of Theatre, a nonprofit summer camp for kids six to 17, gives local young people a creative outlet and a choice for something fun and constructive to do during their summer break.

Our Director

Liisa Ivory comes to OCPA with many credits in acting and directing from such theatres as Oregon Shakespeare Festival, Utah Shakespearean Festival, and Missouri Repertory Theatre. She received her master of fine arts in acting at the American Conservatory Theatre and her bachelor of arts at Santa Clara University.

This is Liisa's first year with the Oregon Conservatory.

Service with a smile!
