Jeff Tabler, Artistic Director

Founded in 1998, Oregon Conservatory of Performing Arts was founded by two local high school teachers felt there was a need to offer kids theatre experiences beyond what was found in the public schools, where arts were being curtailed or eliminated. The two brought together a number of artists and teachers to bring the arts alive in the lives of students.

Our Mission

The mission of the Oregon Conservatory of Performing Arts is to keep the performing arts alive and within reach of everyone in our community.

Our Values

We believe that all young people should have the opportunity to experience the theatre arts — that a complete education involves knowledge of the arts and participation in them. We teach the process of theatre, helping kids develop self-esteem and communication skills through creativity and teamwork.

Be a part of OCPA!

We watch all this fabulous talent up on stage today, but we know where it really comes from:

YOU!

Kids can't be this great without fantastic people supporting them behind the scenes. It takes a lot of dedication and effort to keep healthy, happy, active kids going and fully engaged.

Our OCPA board of directors is small but mighty, and we have a lot of fun doing a lot of work. We donate our time and our resources to help make these performance opportunities possible.

But we need your help!

Do you have light work skills that could help us keep the magic going? We are looking for some specific skills that could help OCPA take that next step into a fully-staffed year-round conservatory. If you are someone with a skill that you'd like to share for just a few hours each month, please stop by the lobby or give us a call. We are always looking for like-minded people who want to contribute to OCPA's success. Find out how much fun you can have helping make someone's dreams come true!

Directors' Notes

Having spent much of my early adult life in music school, I studied all kinds of music history: music of the Middle Ages, Renaissance, Baroque, Classical and Romantic. I can't recall studying the music of the 1950's and 1960's. Sure, my folks (former hippies) played some Beatles at home on the record player, but early Rock and Roll was neglected.

What a shame! We've all heard of Jerry Lee Lewis and Fats Domino, but unless you lived during the 1950's, there's a good chance you've missed out on this catchy, very danceable, addictive music.

I have learned three things from the kids in camp this summer:

1) Our talented kids continue to blow my mind with their abilities and love for the stage; 2) Music from the 1950's and 1960's are just as an important part of America's music history as the music from the Baroque, and 3) Kids and adults LOVE this style of music.

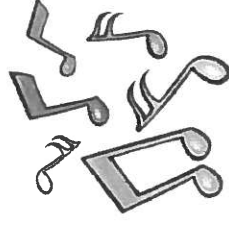

As the Brock family now have two of their three children in OCPA camp during the summer, tunes such as "I Wanna Hold Your Hand" and "Blue Suede Shoes" have been sung over and over again non-stop in the house and car during these past three weeks. I'm sure other OCPA parents have had the same experience!

A huge thanks to our amazing musical director, Mrs. K, and to our Kid Wranglers, who keep the kids from running amok.

Thanks for attending and supporting the Arts in our community.

Sincerely Yours,

Mr. Broccoli
